PROFILES OF A CHAMPION

Colt Cunningham

Supreme Champion Purebred Breeding Heifer -
2016 Oklahoma Youth Expo

As Described by Colt Cunningham...

Favorite daily barn tool: I probably use the Rice Root brush a lot more than most kids my age!

Favorite breed: Lim-Flex

Favorite stock show: National Western Stock Show, I love the yards!

Favorite hobby when you're not showing: Rodeo, Hunting and Livestock Judging

Favorite College/University: Oklahoma State University

Most embarrassing moment: I was at a show in Lawton, OK and my heifer got away from me and found a hole in the show ring and was running around outside of the ring.

Who are your role models?: Ken Holoway, Chase Cunningham and my Dad, Dan Cunningham.

What was the best part of your win at OYE this year?: Having my whole family there was very cool to me. The Cunningham's go way back in the industry and getting to have the entire family there watching me win was awesome.

What is your show day ritual? One year in Denver my brother Chance Cunningham and JW McCurry started playing the song Warrior by Patty Smith and ever since it has been a song I listen to on show day and it brings me good luck.

Proudest accomplishment: Last year at junior nationals I won with a bred and owned heifer and it was cool seeing her go from the pasture to the show ring.

Daily care tip: We are big on keeping our cattle fresh and to do that we say you have to let cattle be cattle. We usually turn our calves out to pasture after shows to keep them fresh.

Future goals: I want to go to a junior college for livestock judging and rodeo and then go on to Oklahoma State University to get a PDH in Ruminant Nutrition.

I would like to thank my family for everything they do to help me. I would also like to thank Ken Holoway and his family for all of their help and for breeding my heifer. JW McCurry, Wyatt and Jace Hancock, Clayton Weatherly, Dylan Enyart, Jared Bain and Lyndsey and Kali Blakely, thank you for all the help and awesome memories!

Colt has all the great makings of a young cattleman. His interest in cattle starts his grassroots in the pasture of his own bred and owned program.

As Described by Leslie Rogers...

Favorite breed: Angus

Favorite stock show: National Western. The competition is always the best and the atmosphere is unbeatable.

Favorite hobby when you're not showing: Boating

Favorite College/University: University of Kentucky - Wildcats

Most embarrassing moment: My last year in 4-H at state fair my heifer got spooked and got loose twice. It was the first time that any animal had gotten away from me so that was super embarrassing.

Who are your role models?: My two older brothers Zach and AJ. They taught me everything I know about the cattle industry and they are the two hardest working people I know.

What was the best part of your win this year?: Being able to share it with my family. We always do everything as a team and this year with this heifer it was definitely a team effort. It took us a while to get there so it was extra special.

What is your show day ritual? We are pretty superstitious so we use the same halter on the same heifer and always use the same show stick.

Proudest accomplishment: I think my proudest accomplishment is just gaining the knowledge over the past few years and being able to stand at a cattle show and love it. When I was growing up I didn't want anything to do with showing cattle, I just wanted to be a normal kid, I just didn't get the process. But now that I have grown up and gotten more knowledgeable about it I have grown to really enjoy showing cattle and I don't know what I would do without it!

Daily care tip: Keep the hide as moisturized as possible. To do that we use Sullivan's Ultra Sheen.

Future goals: My goal is to attend chiropractic school next spring and then specialize in livestock chiropractic. With my cattle, we want to continue to build our herd and get our name out there.

I would like to thank my family especially for always pushing me to stay at the top of my game and for helping me stay consistent. I would also like to thank my competition for helping me be a better showman.

Leslie showed one of the most dominate Angus heifers in recent history. Her accomplishments in the past 2-3 years have been big wins at many of the major shows. An elite competitor that can show stick one with the best of them.

Favorite Daily Hair Care Tool:

Sullivan's SMART Sensation Curve.

"It works well on short haired cattle and when you are trying to grow hair."

Favorite Daily Care Product:

Sullivan's Dually Hair Shedding Comb
 "We are a huge fan of this comb, we have found shedding your calf out is much more effective than shearing."

PROFILES OF A CHAMPION Guyer Sisters

As Described by Ashtin and Nalaney Guyer...

Favorite show day products: Sullivan's Hocus Pocus

Favorite barn tool: Sullivan's Air Express III

Favorite breed: Ashtin: Crossbred and Chi/Maine Nalaney: Angus

Favorite stock show: National Western. Ashtin loves the atmosphere while Nalaney likes meeting new people and taking in all the western sites.

Favorite hobby when you're not showing: Both girls are super dedicated to life in the show barn, but while not in the show barn they are involved in church activities, FFA events and Nalaney is in cheerleading. Both girls enjoy showing pigs.

Favorite College/University: Lake Land College- the judging team and we know many people who have graduated there and thats where dad graduated from.

Who are your role models?: Our mom, dad and our entire family. Also we have modeled our show barn work ethic after the Clark Family from Ohio. We credit a lot of our success with our show pigs to Chad Day and his family.

What was the best part of your wins this year?: Ashtin said that getting to share it with friends and family really makes it worthwhile. Nalaney said that seeing all the hard work was really an awesome moment.

What is your show day ritual? We are very particular about our halters. Each calf has a specific show halter that they must show in. The Sullivan's Texturized Showman's Grip is awesome. Nalaney has a rope halter that all her past champions have worn at the big shows.

Proudest accomplishment: Our proudest accomplishment was winning both the Prospect Heifer and Prospect Steer Shows at the National Western last year.

Daily care tip: Get up and get it done, no one is going to do it for you, because they do not give those banners away.

Future goals: To keep showing livestock and plan to attend college and be on a livestock judging team and definitely staying in the livestock industry after that.

Thank you to our mom and dad, because without their continued love and support we would not be where we are today. Thanks to many many other friends along the way that the list is too long to start but their support is the best. Lastly we would like to thank God, as he is our cornerstone.

The Guyer girls have had a tremendous year with their cattle and pigs but it didn't happen by accident. No one is going to out work the Guyer family and Ashtin and Nalaney work just as hard as their parents.

Breeding Program: We breed for both spring and fall borns. Our primary focus is to produce elite show heifers in multiple breeds including Angus, Simm Influence, Chi, Maines, Maintainers, Char Compisties, with a small portion dedicated to producing steers. We utilize approximately 25 recips outside our herd managed by Andreas dad, Kerry King.

Biggest challenge: Since we are a small operation, our biggest obstacle is figuring out the most economical way to utilize recips.

Favorite stock show: Jeremy: Jr. Nationals and OYE; Chancee: Jr National; Carlee: OYE; Chloe: NWSS; Andrea: NAILE

Future goals: Our future goals are to keep producing females and weigh heavier to the maternal side of our matings, we also hope to be able to utilize more recips.

Chancee: Future showing goals are to one day win Supreme Heifer at Louisville and attend OSU after high school. Carlee: Future showing goals are to win Champion Maintainer at Jr Nationals and Supreme Heifer in Kansas City. Chloe: Future goals are to one day be tall enough to brush her heifers top, and to one day beat her sisters!

Our success to this point would not have been possible without the support from our families. We would also like to express our sincere appreciation to Jirl Buck and family, Matt Scasta, Ethan and Cole Moore, Sam Wallace, Riley Godwin, Robbey Shofner, Garrett Cloud, Spencer Miller, Daniel Lackie and Matt Loggains for everything they have done for us along the way.

A lot of families work together in raising and showing livestock. The Clark family works as a family unit in unison with everyone participating at every level. Hardwork and knowledge make them the ideal cattle family.

PROFILES OF A CHAMPION

Olivia Caldwell

Grand Champion Steer -
2015 American Royal

As Described by Olivia Caldwell...

Favorite daily barn tool: The Sullivan's Staggered Roto Brush makes working hair so much easier and the Sullivan's Smart Scrub brush really helps to separate the hair from the skin.

Favorite breed: Crossbred

Favorite stock show: National Western Stock Show. I love meeting all the new people and the green carpet during the grand drive is a goal for everyone.

Favorite hobby when you're not showing: I really love playing basketball.

Favorite College/University: Oklahoma State University

Most embarrassing moment: When I was 7 or 8, I was at Maine and Chi Jr. Nationals in showmanship and instead of going head to tail, I went head to head. Needless to say that was the last time I did that.

Who are your role models?: My dad is definitely one of my biggest role models along with the rest of my family including my mom, brother and sister.

What was the best part of your win at the American Royal this year?:

My entire family was there including both sets of grandparents and my aunt and cousin. It was so cool to have family there to share the moment with.

Proudest accomplishment: Last year when my steer was an undefeated champion. That was something that I am very proud of.

Daily care tip: The biggest tip I could give someone is to really focus on getting them clean and dry. That is the key to being successful.

Future goals: I would really like to be a livestock judge. I know I am not yet great at public speaking, but I really want to focus on building my skills so I can move forward with a judging career.

I want to thank my family and all of the guys that help us at the barn. I would also like to thank Brandon Jones, he has worked with us somewhere around 10 years and I know that I wouldn't be the person I am without him.

The Caldwell family has been a tremendously knowledgeable steer family for many years. Olivia is a chip off the block. She truly loves showing steers and is the type of kid that will live in the barn.

Joe Sullivan

As Described by Macey Goretska...

Favorite hair care product: Sullivan's Russ' Rag Oil and Sullivan's Kleen Sheen. We use it on a daily basis to get the right amount of shine and healthy hide.

Favorite breed/sire: We are a big fan of Fu Man Chu. My last three steers have been out of him and we have had great luck.

Favorite stock show: It is definitely Denver! It's always our family vacation and I love getting to spend time with my friends when we go out there.

Favorite hobby when you're not showing: I am really active in sports and FFA at my school

Favorite College/University: Iowa State University

Most embarrassing moment: A few years ago at the Cyclone Classic in Ames I was following my dad into the barn and carrying a bucket of water on a super cold morning. I tripped over a board and somehow I ended up dumping the bucket of water all over me and scraping my nose on the ground.

Who are your role models?: My dad is definitely my biggest role model. In high school the biggest thing he ever won was county fair and he has came such a long way since then. My dad and I work together on everything and share the success.

What was the best part of your win this year: I really enjoyed meeting all the new people in Denver this year and the Brown Palace was such a cool experience.

What is your show day ritual? My dad and I usually jam out to loud music on the way to the show on show day!

Proudest accomplishment: Finally winning Denver this year was my proudest accomplishment. It was my 7th year to go and it seemed like every year we were falling short. This year I worked the hardest I have and it paid off. We purchased my steer before the 2015 NWSS and we knew we had a good one then and it was cool to see it pay off.

Daily care tip: When you are working in a cooler room and it is super hot outside I usually bathe them twice. I do the normal bath and then an ice bath. After that I blow them out just enough so they aren't dripping and then I use a Fluffer Comb and Rice Root brush together to brush their hair up and forward.

Future goals: I want to stay involved with the cattle industry and eventually bring kids of my own into it. This industry has taught me a lot of life lessons like hard-work and responsibilities, and I would want to teach my kids that.

In showing cattle there are a lot of ups and downs, you win some and lose some. On a tough day it is important to be happy for the people that win. It is such a teamwork deal. It is also important to never forget the people that help you get where you are. This year it was super emotional winning the Nick Reimann award because I bought my first couple of steers from him.

The first time I got to spend time with Macey was at Stock Show U clipping clinic. She was geniunily interested in absorbing all the knowledge she could. It has been impressive watching her grow up to be a national level showman and fitter.
