FFA: CONDUCT OF MEETINGS LDE

EXTRA PRACTICE

In FFA, the "Conduct of Meetings LDE" refers to a Leadership Development Event where a team of FFA members have to demonstrate their ability to properly conduct a meeting using correct parliamentary procedure. Along with this, this also has to include FFA opening and closing ceremonies. This contest is designed to showcase effective communication skills, all designed to introduce younger members to the mechanics of running an FFA chapter meeting. Along with performing the contest within the designated time, contest judges will ask questions to the participants to test their knowledge of the FFA manual along with proper procedures of Parliamentary Procedure. Let Sullivan Supply help you succeed in this contest by answering and then studying the 45 questions below. Good Luck!
