

Name: _____

Date: _____

GREENHAND GLOW-UP SCAVENGER HUNT

What is a Greenhand FFA Degree? FFA members enrolled in their first year of high school credit agricultural science, that have satisfactory plans for a Supervised Agricultural Experience (SAE) program, and that have demonstrated their understanding of the history and purpose of the National FFA Organization may apply for their Greenhand degree. To help you earn your Greenhand degree, answer the following questions by following the FFA link below that is through the National FFA Organization.

LINK - WWW.FFA.ORG/FFA-HISTORY

1 – What year did the blue corduroy jacket is adopted as Official Dress?

2 – The Smith-Hughes Act passed in 1917 to bring agriculture, home economics, and trade classes to schools. Who are the two individuals that introduced this act? (Hint – watch the video!)

3 – Future Farmers of America is established in what year?

4 – The first National FFA Convention is held in what city and state?

5 – In what year were the New Farmers of America founded?

6 – _____ from New Jersey is elected first national FFA president in 1928.

7 – In 1929, these two colors were adopted as official FFA colors. What are they?

GREENHAND GLOW-UP SCAVENGER HUNT

9 – The official FFA Creed was adopted in 1933. Who wrote the FFA Creed?

10 – In _____, the New Farmers of America (NFA) merges with FFA.

11 – In 1969, FFA opens membership to _____, making it possible for them to hold office and participate in competitive events at regional and national levels.

12 – In _____, Jan Eberly of California becomes the first female national FFA president.

13 – In 1989, The National Future Farmer magazine changes its name to what?

14 – In what year was Corey Flournoy from Illinois elected as the first African American to be the national FFA president?

15 – in 1999, the National FFA Convention and Expo was moved from Kansas City, MO to which city in the United States?

16 – In 2014, FFA jackets are donated to the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History. How many jackets were donated?

Name: ANSWER KEY Date: _____

GREENHAND GLOW-UP SCAVENGER HUNT

What is a Greenhand FFA Degree? FFA members enrolled in their first year of high school credit agricultural science, that have satisfactory plans for a Supervised Agricultural Experience (SAE) program, and that have demonstrated their understanding of the history and purpose of the National FFA Organization may apply for their Greenhand degree. To help you earn your Greenhand degree, answer the following questions by following the FFA link below that is through the National FFA Organization.

LINK - WWW.FFA.ORG/FFA-HISTORY

1 – What year did the blue corduroy jacket is adopted as Official Dress?

1933

2 – The Smith-Hughes Act passed in 1917 to bring agriculture, home economics, and trade classes to schools. Who are the two individuals that introduced this act? (Hint – watch the video!) Senator Hoke Smith and Representative Dudley Hughes

3 – Future Farmers of America is established in what year?

1928

4 – The first National FFA Convention is held in what city and state?

Kansas City, MO

5 – In what year were the New Farmers of America founded?

1965

6 – Leslie Applegate from New Jersey is elected first national FFA president in 1928.

7 – In 1929, these two colors were adopted as official FFA colors. What are they?

National Blue and Corn Gold

GREENHAND GLOW-UP SCAVENGER HUNT

9 – The official FFA Creed was adopted in 1933. Who wrote the FFA Creed?

E.M. Tiffany

10 – In 1965, the New Farmers of America (NFA) merges with FFA.

11 – In 1969, FFA opens membership to females, making it possible for them to hold office and participate in competitive events at regional and national levels.

12 – In 1982, Jan Eberly of California becomes the first female national FFA president.

13 – In 1989, The National Future Farmer magazine changes its name to what?

FFA New Horizons

14 – In what year was Corey Flournoy from Illinois elected as the first African American to be the national FFA president?

1994

15 – in 1999, the National FFA Convention and Expo was moved from Kansas City, MO to which city in the United States?

Louisville, KY

16 – In 2014, FFA jackets are donated to the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History. How many jackets were donated?

5